

Elementary Summer Camp 2016 “Our World is One World”

Sunday, July 10 – Saturday, July 16, 2016
Dean: Celeste Plumlee
For campers completing grades 2nd—5th

The world needs you. It needs people who have compassion, who listen, who think, and who want to make things better. You have the ability to change things in small ways, in big ways, in important ways; and the truth is...you have already changed the world just by being you. All over the world, people are working to make things better, and at PSWD Elementary Summer Camp we will come together to be part of that adventure. And...we will also have SO MUCH FUN! At camp, you will make new friends, try new things, and find the many reasons why the world needs you to be exactly who you are—a caring and loving human being. You will enjoy hiking, music, crafts, swimming, singing, tie dyeing, fort building...and tons of other activities. All campers are well cared for by trained counselors who are guided by Unitarian Universalist principles and who work to build a loving and inclusive camp community. The new and rich experiences that kids get at camp can be genuinely life changing. Don't miss this opportunity for a fabulous week in the forest!

PSWD Counselor-in-Training Program Sunday, July 10 - Saturday, July 16, 2016

Trainers: Mary Carter Vail and Emmalinda MacLean
All applicants must be between the ages of 15 and 18

Do you want to give an amazing camp experience to the next generation of campers? Ready for a summer of hard work and serious responsibility, mixed with outrageous fun and friendship? Train to be a cabin counselor with the CIT program! Delve into a week of intensive learning as you discover the behind-the-scenes side of camp! We'll explore leadership styles and conflict management, build skills for working with children, practice handling emergency situations, learn how to lead age-appropriate workshops and games, and so much more. In addition to learning how to be top-notch counselors, CITs build connections with each other and become an integral part of the Elementary Camp community. Training takes place in the first half of the day; in the afternoon, CITs will assist cabin counselors and program staff to gain practical experience. Space is limited to 8 selected participants, with the goal that all CITs will complete the program and be recommended to serve as a counselor for future camps—although this is not guaranteed. A formal CIT application will be sent upon receipt of deposit and registration. All applications, including letters of recommendation, are due by May 19 to qualify for consideration. Final acceptance notification will be made by June 1, 2016.

The cost for this program is $425.00
$75 deposit will be refunded if applicant is not selected.
(No discounts available for this program)

PSWD Junior High Summer Camp “Camp Journeys”

Sunday, July 17 – Saturday, July 23, 2016
Deans: Kathleen Moscato and Marianne Swift Gifford
For campers completing grades 6th—8th

Being a Unitarian Universalist means acting in a way that reflects our beliefs and our Principles. Because ours is a creedless faith, defining what it means to be a UU can be challenging. We often welcome such a challenge — indeed, a questioning spirit is part of our faith. Come explore how Unitarian Universalism translates into life choices and everyday actions.

Your journey...is like no other.
Your talents are unique to you.

Your gifts can make a difference in ways others can't! Your journey brings you many opportunities to make a difference...just by being YOU! We are already on a journey...the journey is called 'life'! We are called to realize our full potential, and to become a force for good in the world. If we respond to the call, we're in for an adventure. Life is certainly not going to be boring!
Treasure every moment you have and remember that time waits for no one!

Campers will have the opportunity to participate in swimming, hiking, team building, game playing, canoeing, music, arts and crafts, variety show, making friends for a lifetime, and more!

Drop off and check-in for all PSWD camps is between 2 pm and 5 pm on Sunday.

Pick-up is between 11 am and 12 pm on Saturday.

Plan ahead for carpooling with other campers from your area.

Take a break from the hot deserts of Tatooine to come enjoy the cool mountain breezes of Camp de Benneville Pines with all its nature. We will enjoy the beautiful scenery of Jenks Lake, become more informed and powerful individuals, and come closer to becoming Jedis, all in a week!
