

Camp de Benneville Pines Welcomes You!

Spend some time in the Pines with us this season!

Camp de Benneville Pines has been a home away from home for generations of UU campers since the 1960's, and now it welcomes you!

Visit our website for additional information and pricing.

For general information, contact: Janet James, Executive Director, director@uucamp.org or (909) 435-6298.

For information on youth camp programming, contact Marianne Swift-Gifford, Camping Ministries Director, cm@uucamp.org or (760) 908-1799.

For information on registration, contact Jessica Fairchild, Registrar, registrar@uucamp.org or (909) 747-9792.

www.uucamp.org

Upcoming Camps

Something is always happening at Camp de Benneville Pines

Music in the Mountains

November 3-5 Experience the traditions of acoustic music in a weekend filled with music and singing of blues, folk, country, gospel, and classic rock.

Fullerton/Long Beach UU Family Retreat

November 10-12 All UUCF, UUCLB, PUC, and Alianza members and friends are invited to attend. Singing, hiking, children's activities, and other workshops—or simply relaxing!

Mountain S.E.E.D. Conference

November 17-19 Relaxation, rejuvenation, connection, community, healthy food, nature, hiking, yoga, art, workshops, stress resilience, social emotional learning focus.

Thanksgiving Celebration

Nov 23-26 Sold out! Join the waitlist.

Life Drawing Winter Art Camp Dec 1st—Dec 3rd

Dean: Betsy Gilpin

The winter version of Art Camp 4 Grown Ups offers life drawing only. Enjoy three sessions of life drawing: Friday afternoon, Saturday morning, and Sunday morning. Lots of time for "Art Talk," Show and Tell, and just visiting and inspiring one another.

Campers share cooperative meals in Craig's Cabin and stay in Craig's Cabin or Cabin 6.

Enjoy good companionship and beautiful surroundings while creating art together.

<https://bit.ly/3PXIJ9R>

UU Sr. High 2023/24 Winter Camp Dec 27th—Jan 1st

Camp Carry UUn

Deans:

Patti Buck & Mary Carter Vail

Youth Deans:

Lilly Astudillo & Cady Cole

Are you seeking to connect with other UU youth? Would you enjoy a week in the mountains with old friends while making new friends? Want to experience an "affirmation snowball fight"? How about dancing under the winter stars as you welcome in the new year with your "camp family"? Would you like to experience Unitarian Universalism spirituality in a youth centered way? Come join us for Senior High Winter Camp!

Youth currently in 9th-12th grades are welcome to join us this winter for Camp Carry UUn.

<https://bit.ly/3Q0PveO>

UU Pacific Southwest Service Area Assembly Apr 26-28, 2024

Let's Gather

In Ventura for...

UNITARIAN
UNIVERSALIST
PACIFIC SOUTHWEST

SERVICE AREA ASSEMBLY

Promoting Justice: Amplifying Voices

at the Intersections of Race, Class & Environment

+ Camp de Benneville Pines business meeting
+ Youth Con

April 26-28, 2024

In the tradition of the beloved PSWD annual assembly, this event is sponsored by Camp de Benneville Pines & hosted by Unitarian Universalist Church of Ventura with support from their neighbors at Chalice UU.

?’s about Assembly contact Janet director@uucamp.org

<https://bit.ly/3RYOmac>

Camp de Benneville Pines
41750 Jenks Lake Rd W
Angelus Oaks, CA 92305
www.uucamp.org
(909) 794-2928 | director@uucamp.org

Helping Camp Thrive

Let's Thrive Together

Camp de Benneville Pines is here to nourish your life and with your attendance and support will be a forest retreat to nurture spiritual health far into the future.

Join our team to preserve Camp de Benneville Pines! Our annual matching fund drive ends January 31, 2024. Become a new monthly giver, increase your monthly giving, or make an annual donation. Our objective is to match $100,000 in new donations. Please also consider a legacy donation by making Camp part of your will. Large or recurring unrestricted gifts are most helpful to preserve Camp de Benneville Pines for future generations! Thank you for your support!

<https://bit.ly/3FjpUsx>